Weekly Races Fall To Rain, Deery Late Model Special Next At IMS

Independence, Iowa: Saturday nights racing action at the Independence Motor Speedway fell victim to the weather as rain moved into the area at 6:30 forcing the IMS officials to cancel the regular Saturday night racing program.

Next up at the Independence Motor Speedway will be a special night of mid-week racing as the Deery Brothers Summer Series for IMCA Late Models will come to town on Wednesday, June 19th. A strong field of IMCA Late Models, headed by current point leader Justin Kay of Wheatland, Iowa are expected to be on hand gunning for the $2,000 winners share of the 50 lap feature event. In addition to the Late Models the IMS Sportmods, Hobby Stocks and XCEL 600 Micro Mods will be in action. The grandstand gates will open at 4:30 pm with hot laps getting underway at 6:30, racing will follow.
